

Proclamation

WHEREAS, April is recognized as Financial Literacy Month in the United States, highlighting the importance of being financially knowledgeable and teaching Americans how to establish and maintain healthy financial habits; and

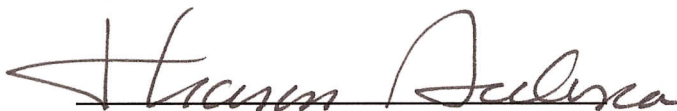

WHEREAS, Fairfax County Public Schools, with the support of local businesses, has partnered with Junior Achievement of the National Capital Area to educate students about workforce readiness, entrepreneurship and financial literacy; and

WHEREAS, Junior Achievement and local businesses are constructing a state-of-the-art facility at the Frost-Woodson school campus to prepare and educate more than 14,000 middle school students annually about basic life skills, including individual and family budgeting, credit, interest, saving and investing; NOW THEREFORE

BE IT RESOLVED, that the Fairfax County Board of Supervisors, on behalf of all residents of Fairfax County, does hereby proclaim April 2010, as

Financial Literacy Month

in Fairfax County, to raise awareness of this great need, and urges all students and residents to become more financially savvy.

Sharon Bulova, Chairman
Fairfax County Board of Supervisors

April 27, 2010

Date

